Justice and Peace gain experience through trips

As Christians, conversion involves "putting ourselves in the shoes of others." Through a series of weekly field trips, the Justice and Peace have been able to experience the poverty and dignity of others.

Artists Hard At Work

This year, Sister Laura's art classes have been very busy. The painting class added their personal touch to the wrestling room, with four large figures, while the drawing students have been busy decorating the entrances of the school according to the seasons of the year.

Once again, Sister Laura and her artistically talented students have captured the school spirit throughout the halls of Marian.

Building Faith

Led by Father Bill Schooler, the Marian Theology department served a dual purpose this year — formatting of Christian principles and information of the Christian faith.

In class, the information sector covers academic growth in faith. Formation of Christian principles is aided through liturgies, retreats and prayer services, all of which give students a chance to evaluate their lives.

Marching Knights: Stepping Out

by Julianne Miranda

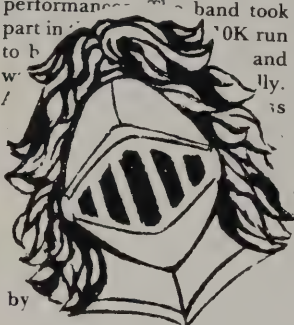

Pageantry displayed at Homecoming

by Missy Koloszar

As a proud Marian tradition, the Marching Knights have expanded the direction of the band under the leadership of Dehner and Miss Leatherwood. The band consists of thirty-two musicians, sixteen poms, six flags and one twirler. The band has two music rehearsals and three marching rehearsals per week.

The band has changed leadership this year, and continues to give quality performances. The band took part in the 1983 OK run and was very successful.

terrific! The South Bend Band Festival, held at South Bend's School Field early October, was also very rewarding, said Dehner. "The rating was unofficial, but the judges comments will help us design and execute a competitive show for next year. We received high honors on a scale of one to five, with one being highest, the Knights received a two," explained Dehner. Marian competed with all the South Bend bands in this event, the Marching Band performed in the South Bend Holiday Parade, and led the Santa Claus Parade at University Park Mall, both on November 19.

According to Dehner, the students are taking a more active part in running the Band this year. Band President Jack Letherman, Vice President Lora Seig, and Treasurer Stephen Pairitz, along with auxiliary members, Captain Sherry, Co-captain Kelly Kim, Michele Gill serves as captain for the flag corps and is assisted by co-captain Jill Sieradzki.

Saturday, September 2 marked the first homecoming ever in Marian's new stadium. This event featured the crowning of Sandy Heming as Marian's 1983 homecoming queen. Other members of the year's court included freshman, Manette Tepe; sophomore, Dana Cira, junior, Anne Farabaugh and Michele Tepe; and seniors, Mary Gr and Carol Voor. These girls and their escorts were paraded in a half-tirade of convertibles. The week before the homecoming, the Marian band triumphed in the LaVine victory.

Prom: A special time

Students at Marian High School are busy preparing for this year's Junior/Senior Prom. Sponsored by the Junior Class, the Prom will be held on May 5 at the Hotel in South Bend. Dinner will be served at 6:30 with a blue topping. After dinner, the students will dance to the sounds of the dance band "Travesty," until midnight. According to Junior Class Sponsor, Sr. Ann Kathleen, this is a special event and every effort is being made to ensure the success of the evening. "I can even promise that the New York Strip will be MEDIUM!" she added. Former Publicity Chairperson Cathy Quinlan stated, "Although the tickets will be on sale through April 25, buy the tickets early." Prices range from $25 for two beef dinners to $22 for a combination dinner to $19 for two chicken dinners. When purchasing tickets, be sure to include correct spelling of names as they will appear in the memory book. The colors for the Prom are rose and ivory and the theme is "Just You and I."

INTERMISSION

Pastoral Ministry

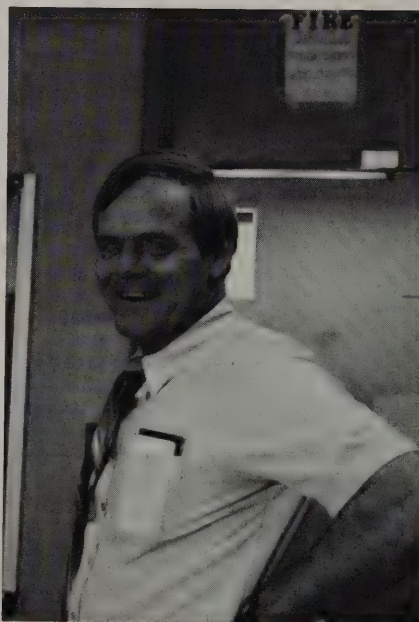

Pastoral Ministry covers most aspects of Marian's religious community. Under the heading comes the chaplain's office and all the staff of the theology department. Their services are very valuable.

Also a part of Pastoral Ministry are the liturgies and all of the people involved in their planning, set-up, and execution. The various liturgies from the mass with the Bishop to penance services, round out the Marian religious experience.

The retreats are also a part of this ministry. They give the students and faculty a chance to step back and look at their lives.

The week before had been highlighted with various activities to raise school spirit. Students anxiously participated in blue and white day, athletic day, fifties day and, in honor of the Lancers, farmer day. The week concluded with the annual Homecoming poster contest. Band Moves Up And Out

The Marian Marching Band moved up in numbers, quality and style this year. They also moved out of the confines of the parking lot into such places as a new Marian stadium, band contests, festivals, parades and various competitions.

Mr. Ron Dehner was a new addition to the Marian faculty and he went right to work to build the Marian Band Program. Mr. Dehner hopes to recruit younger members of elementary schools into becoming future Marian band members. The future of the Marian band looks bright if they continue the way they have worked this year.

Dedicated Pom Pon Girls Excel

Early morning practices, memorizing routines and dedication were some of the things it took to be a Pom Pon girl.

The girl's hard work paid off. Teachers, parents and friends were entertained with halftime shows at home football and basketball games.

This year's squad was under the direction of Miss Leatherwood and co-captains Shelly Horvath and Kelly Kimble.

Besides the Pom Pon girls and twirler Kim Tarr, the flag corps added the final touch to the Marian squad.

Jack And The Beanstalk

On May 19-20, the "Communication Club" brought children's theater back to Marian High School with its presentation of the play Jack and the Beanstalk. Directed primarily at 4 to 12 year old children the exciting story of Jack, his mother, a goose that layed golden eggs and a "fee-fie-foe-fummish" giant entertained children of all ages. Under the direction of Mr. Ed Chamberlin, the play was presented in the school cafeteria with audience members on all sides of a "circular" stage to promote more effective audience "involvement".

The Pajama Game

The Marian Drama Club presented "The Pajama Game", based on Richard Bissel's novel, 7½ Cents, on March 30, 31 and April 1, 1984. The swift-moving plot centered around the Sleep-Tite Pajama factory and its employees.

The new superintendent (Jim Schleis) met and fell in love with a member of the grievance committee (Amy Cates). In addition to this blooming romance, there was another love interest between the time study expert (Eddie Jordanich) and Gladys (Shelley Kruggel), the president's secretary. Meanwhile, the union demanded a seven-and-a-half-cent raise causing a conflict between the superintendent and Gladys.

The play was directed by Mr. Robert VanGoey, assisted by Julie Hostetler. Karen Kloska and Margaret Maurek were in charge of the stage, and the music was directed by Miss Cherrie Letherwood and Mr. Ron Dehner.

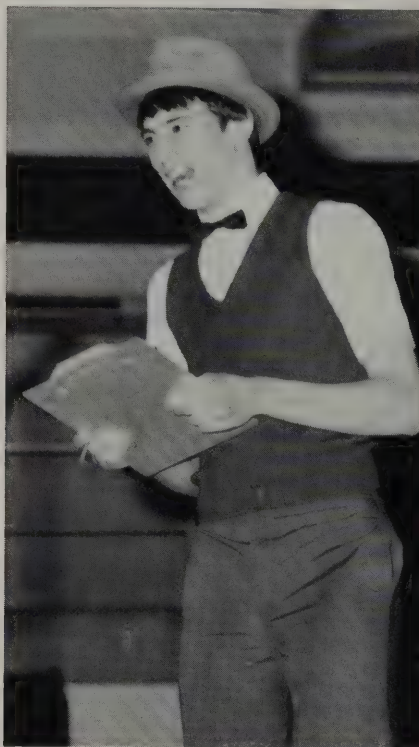

"It must take great courage to give to many what one often gives to but a loved one. A voice altered by love, desire, the smile of open, naked tenderness. We are permitted to witness the exposure of all feelings, tenderness, anger, weakness, abandon, childishness, fear, all that we usually reveal only to the loved one.

That is why we love the actress. They give us the intimate being who is only revealed in the act of love. We receive all the treasures, a caressing glance, an intimate gesture, the secret ranges of the voice."

Just You And I

The 1983-84 prom was held May 5 in the Marriott Hotel ballroom. The students attending enjoyed a full evening including a meal before the dancing. Dinner began at 6:30 with New York strip steak, and chicken Cordon Bleu topping the menu.

Travesty provided the music. The theme song was "Just You and I" to go with the chosen colors of peach and ivory.

The evening was filled with excitement and romances. The chaperones had as much fun as the students.

Seniors Last Step

On May 11 and 12, 1984, the senior class of Marian High School was honored with its Baccalaureate and Graduation ceremonies. Baccalaureate Mass was held at St. Matthew's Cathedral on Friday, May 11. Bishop William McManus celebrated this service, the first of the two ceremonies. On Saturday, May 12, family, friends, and students gathered to acknowledge the accomplishments of the senior class at the graduation ceremony held in the Marian gymnasium. Valedictorian Francie Schrader and Salutatorian Mary Schmiedeler reminisced about their years at Marian and gave their final farewells. Father Marty Hunckler, the guest speaker, gave an inspiring directive for the future. Finally, after the distribution of diplomas by Principal Michael Hazen, the Class of 1984 turned their tassels and left Marian with smiles, tears, and a sign of relief.

the group modeled children's hero Mr. Rogers in a skit explaining their solution. Mr. Rogers was played by alternate John Ernst.

After learning of their success, the group experienced mixed emotions. "They (the FPS team) are all able students and I felt confident that they could have done it," commented Coach Camille Irvine. "But there is a difference between speculation and the real thing." "We were satisfied with winning the skit competition," added Patty Villanueva. "We did not expect it at all."

In preparation for any competition, the group devotes many hours to research, and is currently studying genetic engineering. "The team worked hard all year spending time on weekends

"We are extremely proud of the Future Problem Solvers Team and their accomplishments," stated Mr. Hazen.

Anne Killilea becomes Junior Olympian

by Anne Phelps

To many people swimming is a leisure time activity, but for Anne Killilea it is much more.

Anne Killilea, a sixteen year old junior at Marian, had the chance to compete in the Junior Olympics and won one of the medals.

At 30, Anne won medals in the one hundred meter butterfly, the two hundred meter butterfly, the four hundred meter medley relay and the four hundred meter freestyle relay. She won a silver in the one hundred meter freestyle.

Anne said, "I was pretty sure I won."

EDITORIAL

Dear Marian Knights,

Now that you have reached this letter, you have already remembered the 1983-84 school year through the pictures and words we have put together. We have all shared good times at Marian, and this yearbook serves as a "memory jogger" to help bring those times back. Of course not every picture will have special meaning, but if even one picture or phrase brings a smile to your face many years from now, this book is a success. As editors, that is our goal — a lasting memory.

Most of you have no idea how much work goes into the preparation of a yearbook. If it had not been for the hard work of several people, we would not have made it. We would like to thank these people for their time and effort. First of all, a lot of credit must go to Pat Walsh, Mary Beth Hainey and a few other members of the sixth hour study hall. We also want to remember the kind janitors and cleaning ladies who let us in at all hours. A big thanks goes to Debbie Niedbalski and Mr. VanGoey, who gave up sunny summer days to help us meet a long-past deadline. Finally, we want to thank everyone who purchased a copy of the 1983-84 Madrigal.

May you enjoy it for years to come, and always remember "Memories are forever!"

Mary Schmiedeler and Maria Sebeliski
